

BelHealth Investment Partners Announces the Promotion of Nathan Kronforst to Managing Director and the Addition of a New Associate

New York, NY – March 2, 2015 – BelHealth Investment Partners, a healthcare-focused private equity firm, announced the promotion of Nathan Kronforst to Managing Director.

Mr. Kronforst joined BelHealth in 2012 as a Vice President and has been involved in the origination, structuring, due diligence and overall execution of transactions. Mr. Kronforst has had a lead role in BelHealth's investment in Aureus Health Services and serves on the company's Board of Directors. Prior to joining BelHealth, he was Vice President and founding member of Celerant Capital, a middle market private equity firm where he led deal origination, evaluation and structuring.

Mr. Kronforst received his MBA from the Kenan-Flagler Business School at the University of North Carolina and his BA in Business Administration and Computer Information Systems from the University of Miami.

Dennis Drislane, BelHealth Managing Partner said, "We are pleased to announce Nate's promotion to Managing Director. He has been a tremendous member of the investment team and integral to the success BelHealth has achieved to date. Nate has earned this promotion through his tireless work on origination and portfolio company management. Nate's future is bright and we look forward to his continued leadership with the firm."

Additionally, BelHealth is pleased to announce that Jonathan Spero has joined the fund as an Associate. Mr. Spero will be active in executing new transactions and working closely with existing portfolio companies. Previously, Mr. Spero worked as an Analyst in the healthcare investment banking division of SunTrust Robinson Humphrey. Mr. Spero received a bachelor's degree in Business Administration and Finance from Carnegie Mellon University.
