
Integrated Care Physicians Appoints Executive Leadership Team and Board of Directors

- * Seasoned leadership team with over 100 years of collective domain experience*
- * Experience, relationships, and capacity to manage a broad platform in the southeast*

New York, New York – August 22, 2017 – Integrated Care Physicians Inc. (“ICP” or the “Company”), a portfolio company of BelHealth Investment Partners, LLC (“BelHealth”), a New York-based healthcare private equity firm, today announced the appointment of several senior executives at ICP.

ICP named Todd Carlson, MD as Chief Executive Officer. Dr. Carlson has over 21 years of experience as a board-certified emergency medicine physician and also has a strong history of leadership within development and operations in the specialty provider space. Most recently, Dr. Carlson was the state quality and risk adjustment medical director for Optum / United Health Group (UNH: NYSE) where he provided clinical and operational management for Medicare Advantage plans within the Florida contracted market. Prior to that, Dr. Carlson was the Regional President of Emergency and Hospitalist Medicine for the Schumacher Group, where he managed 60 hospital contracts in 11 states for Emergency Medicine and Hospitalist Medicine.

The Company also appointed David Grinbergs, MD as Chairman of the Board of Directors and John Geanes as Executive Chairman. Dr. Grinbergs has over 20 years of experience in leading both public and private healthcare organizations. Most recently, Dr. Grinbergs served as Divisional CEO for the Emergency Medicine division of EmCare-Envision (EVHC: NYSE) as well as President for the Emergency Medicine division of TeamHealth (TMH: NYSE). Additionally, Mr. Geanes has worked in healthcare management and administration since the 1970’s where he has served as Administrator and CEO of numerous hospitals and health systems. Over the last decade and a half, Mr. Geanes served as the Senior Vice President of IPC Healthcare (acquired by TeamHealth in 2015), the largest national provider of hospital medicine services where he oversaw two of the firm’s largest regions in Texas and Florida.

Todd Carlson said, “I am thrilled to be back in the emergency medicine space and to partner with the BelHealth team and our Board of Directors. The foundation of our corporate team has the ability to operate a broad platform with multiple specialty physician providers. With management and BelHealth’s deep network throughout the Southeast, we will be able to pursue an aggressive organic and add-on strategy over the next few years. We understand the various pain points hospitals have dealt with over the years by working with the larger multi-state emergency medicine providers, and we believe ICP provides an attractive solution for any hospital customer.”

Scott Lee, Managing Director of BelHealth stated, “We have assembled a world-class leadership team with significant physician-centric experience, particularly in emergency medicine. Our team’s collective familiarity within the space will be instrumental to our success, and the BelHealth team is confident that their relationships will be a tremendous asset to ICP. We will continue to further supplement the management team in order to accelerate growth in strategic geographies and stay true to our goal of becoming a differentiated service partner to hospitals while focused on providing quality patient care.”
